

Invitation

We wish to invite you to attend the International Breast Ultrasound Seminar to be held on December 11, 2001 at the Edinburgh International Conference Centre.

The seminar programme consisting of a series of didactic presentations has been organized by the International Breast Ultrasound School (IBUS) as part of the 33rd Annual Scientific Meeting of British Medical Ultrasound Society and the 13th Euroson meeting.

The support and co-operation of the Executive of the British Medical Ultrasound Society has made possible this programme, and contributions from the expert faculty members will ensure a high quality teaching programme.

We look forward to seeing you in Edinburgh.
